THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE B. PRAKASH RAO

AND

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE P. LAKSHMANA REDDY

WRIT APPEAL No.2060 of 2004

JUDGMENT: (Per BPR,J)

Heard both sides.

The unsuccessful writ petitioner is the appellant, who by way of this appeal, seeks to assail the order dated 02-11-2004 in W.P.No.24563 of 2003 rejecting the relief sought for against the order dated 06-11-2003 transferring him to a distant place like Manuguru project area.

Several contentions have been urged, across the bar, by the learned counsel on either side, especially on behalf of the petitioner that in a very short span of time, he was transferred for a number of times and being a Mazdoor, he cannot be transferred to such a distant place. The learned Single Judge, having considered the submissions made on behalf of both the parties and after going into the merits of the case, held that the transfer is purely administrative and accordingly dismissed the writ petition. However during the course of arguments before this Court, it is pointed out that the representation made by the appellant before the respondent on 06-11-2003 with regard to his transfer is still pending. Having regard to the same, we do not find any reason to go into the merits of the case, however it would suffice in the interests of justice to direct the respondent to consider the said representation in view of the fact that the appellant is a Mazdoor and pass appropriate orders in accordance with law within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

Accordingly the writ appeal is disposed of. No costs.
